- D. The Executive Committee shall fill all vacancies, which occur between meetings of the Association, except the office of the President, First Vice President, and Second Vice President.
- E. Any financial item or amendment covering finances shall be left to the Executive Committee for their official action before being acted upon at any convention.
- F. When an election of any officer of the Association shall result in a tie, the decision shall be made by two- third vote of the Executive Committee present at the convention.
- G. At quarterly meetings of the Executive Committee any member present may voice an opinion or speak on the subject under discussion upon recognition by the Presiding Officer. Power to make or second a motion or to vote on same shall be limited to members of the Executive Committee and members of standing committees present at the quarterly meeting.

ARTICLE III – STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1

All standing committees shall meet in the convention city or town at 8:00 pm on the night before the date fixed for the opening of the Annual Meeting for the purpose of hearing all persons who may desire to appear, and for the further purpose of preparing their report to the convention. They shall meet at any other such time and place at the call of the chairman of the respective committee or the executive Committee.

Section 2

The COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS shall receive all resolutions from the members of the Association and present resolution to the convention, provided, however, that this does not preclude any member from presenting a resolution to the convention at the proper time.

Section 3

The COMMITTEE ON LAWS AND LEGISLATION shall maintain close contact with the Legislature and the Congress and shall review all bills that are before or will be presented to those bodies relating to the welfare of this Association or any of its members, and they shall further advise the organization members of this Association of the progress of any such legislative matters.

The chairman of this committee shall be authorized to attend the Legislative Conference of the Legislative Committee of the Firemen's Association of the State of New York and the Legislative Mini-Conference held in the spring, and his expenses shall be charged against the Association. In the event of the inability of the chairman to attend such meetings, he may designate any other member of his committee to act as an alternate.

The appointment of the chairman will become effective on November 1st and will continue until the following October 31st.

SECTION 4

It shall be the duty of the NOMINATING COMMITTEE to present to the Association and place in nomination, at the Annual Convention a full slate of candidates for office; reserving the right however of the delegates and members of the Association to place in nomination other candidates for office, all of whom shall be balloted upon at the regular annual election of officers. The Nominating Committee shall make its report on the first day of the convention.

All endorsements for office in this association must be in the hands of the Chairman of the Nomination Committee at least twenty-four hours in advance of the night before the date fixed for the opening of the convention.

The convention in assembly is to take action on the report of the Nominating Committee directly after the report is given. Any further nominations for elective office shall be made from the floor at this time. Any candidate for elective office will have the right to appoint three checkers at the election polls and at the counting of the ballots. The election should take place from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM on the second day of the convention.

SECTION 5

It shall be the duty of the MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE to stimulate growth of the Association. They shall encourage the application for membership of all qualified prospects; and each member of the committee shall do all in his power to maintain interest in the Association of all members within his respective county.

SECTION 6

The duties of the EMERGENCY MEDICAL COMMITTEE shall be to foster interest in emergency medical service work by member organizations and to encourage the formation of emergency medical service squads. They shall assist the local convention committee in arranging for a First Aid Contest and help secure judges.

SECTION 8 The STEERING COMMITTEE shall consist of one member from each of the member counties of this Association. Each respective County shall appoint a member to serve for a five-year term. An alternate member can be appointed to represent the County if the member is unable to attend a meeting. If an appointment cannot be made from a County, that seat will remain vacant until an appointment is made. The appointed members of this Committee shall select a Chairman, Co-Chairman and Secretary. Any appointed member must attend at least 75% of the meetings, rounded to the nearest whole number or be removed from the committee. If any appointed members become a FASNY or Firemen's Home elected official they may be replaced for the remaining term.

The President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Jr. Past President, and Treasurer of this Association and any elected officers of FASNY and the Firemen's Home may serve as Ex-officio members of this committee. Ex-officio members must attend at least 75% of the meetings, rounded to the nearest whole number or be removed from the committee.

No county is to have more than one vote. A simple majority of the votes cast will constitute approval. In the absence of the appointed member from a county, an ex-officio member present from the respective county shall cast a vote.

A Past President of FASNY, who is from a WNYVFA member county and is a good standing member of this Association, shall serve as a Resource to the Steering Committee for a term of five years following the completion of his term as President. He will only have full voting power if his county does not have representation at a time of voting.

There will be two counties terms expiring every year except in the fifth year where there will be three. Initial implementation of this bylaw will take place at the annual reorganization meeting of this committee. The newly elected Chairman will use a random selection process to determine which two counties (or three) term will be expiring in successive order.

The duties of this committee shall be to encourage and promote candidates to any state or regional association.

SECTION 9

The BUDGET AND PROGRAM BOOK COMMITTEE shall consist of a least five (5) members, whose duty it shall be to prepare and recommend a budget and publish proceedings of the annual convention.
